POETRY.

"GOOD BYE."

Farewell! farewell is often heard From the lips of those who part: 'Tis a whispering tone-'tis a gentle word, But it springs not from the heart. It may serve for the lover's closing lay,

To be sung 'neath a summer's sky; But give me the quivering lips that say The honest words-"Good bye !"

Adieu! adieu! may greet the ear, In the guise of courtly speech; But when we leave the kind and dear, Tis not what the soul would teach. Whene'er we grasp the hands of those

We would have forever nigh, The flame of friendship bursts and glows In warm, frank words-"Good bye."

The mother sending forth her child To meet with cares and strife, Breathes thro' her tears, her doubts and

For the loved one's future life. No cold "adieu," no "farewell" lives Within her closing sigh; But the deepest sob of anguish gives-"God bless thee, hoy!"-"Good bye!"

Go! watch the pale and dying one, When the glance has lost its beam-When the brow is cold as the marble stone, And the world a passing dream;

And the latest pressure of the hand, The look of the closing eye, Yield what the heart must understand, A long -a last "Good bye!"

DIVINITY OF PRINTING .- God was the first Printer: He gave from his hand amid the blackness of Sinai, the mind of Godthe decalogue of all moral law, the claim of man upon man, and God upon all.

Printing! The art that shall hand down to posterity, innumerable millions yet unborn of God, the thoughts of living men; of men who lived centuries since. They defy time, and the printed manuscript of these men shall live, too full of soul to be put in the same grave with their perishable bodies. It was a wright thought in that author who, in his dying moments, was just able to ask if the proof of his last work was correct, all corrected! Yes, all. Then I shall have a complete edition in glory .- [Rev. J. N. Mosiit.

Love RHYMES .-- It is singular how much amatory poetry is written before marriage, and how little after it. One may have but little of "the vision and the faculty divine," but on falling in love he finds that he is not without the "accomplishment of verse." This lets us into the secret why there are so many unsuccessful wooers. 'Sir,' said a lady to a gentleman who had addressed to her a copy of verses, and who afterwards solicited the honor of her hand-"Sir, I admire your person and esteem your character; your manners are pleasing, and your disposition engaging-but-your poetry is execrable. I could never love a 200 Sacs SALT, extra large size, and in writer of such verses.'

Capt. Thornton, on his arrival at Richmond, said that Ampudia was the first man he saw after the battle of the 9th of May. Ampudia pointed out to Captain Thornton his saddle, perforated with two bullet holes, but they were in the rear of the saddle, and it was very plain that they were fired when Ampudia was with his back, and not his face to the foe. Hereafter it may be said, when a man is shot in the back, that he was "Ampudia-ted."

TAX THE BRANDY-WHY ?- 'Brandy !' exclaimed a devotee at the bacchanalian Light fair stitch Philadelphia shrine the other day, 'brandy should come in free-and I vote for no man that goes against it.' 'Brandy free!' quickly responded Yates, 'why should we admit that free, which makes men slaves! There was more in that remark than we have heard in many a temperance lecture.

CURIOUS LEGACY .- Mr. Tustin, late Chaplain to Congress, has had a call to the Presbyterian Church in Hagerstown, Md. Mr. Hugh Kennedy, who died some years ago, left a small annuity to that church on condition that they should sing nothing but the Psalms of David -- when they depart from this they lose the legacy, which amounts to 8800 per annum.

Upon this the keeper of the stand very quietly Best Philadelphia Slippers, pocketed the cash and counted out to the joker twelve empty shells, observing that Best color'd morocco and kid the oysters had been eaten, and that these were their "and-so-forths."

PROSPECTUS

THE SUMTER BANNER.

UNDER the above Title, it is proposed to publish a paper in the Town of Sumterville. The paper will be issued weekly, on the morning of every Wednesday. It is believed, that Sumter District affords as many capabilities for sustaining a weekly newspaper, as a medium of Advertisement, General News and Business, as confiding in this belief, we invite, to our this and the surrounding Districts, who tended class of readers. may be desirous of advertising and see fit to do so. TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Session of Congress, which is about to terminate, will be long and gratefully syncpsis of their contents, and a reference, remembered by all true republicans for the triumphant success of many of their cherished principles and measures. While we heartily rejoice at the triumph of the principles which it has been our constant effort to advocate and defend, and from which no prosperity, no adversity, can swerve us, we cannot be unmindful of the attitude in which we are placed by a recent vote of both houses of Congress: we allude to the contemplated withdrawal of their patronage from thenewspaper press. To this decision we cheerfully bow, sensibly as we are of the patriotic motives which have led 25 to 75 to it. But we trust that this decision of Con-Infants bl'k and col'd kid Bootees at 25 gress increases rather than diminishes in claim to the support of a higher power for 1st of December next, will be entitled, duthat of the people, and to them we confident- ring the next session of Congress, to rely appeal to aid us, by their patronage,sustaining at the sent of government a journal that is inflexibly devoted to the interests of the country.

It is known to every one, that the chief source of sustainining a newspaper is not the magnitude of its subscription list, so much as the advertising patronage which 10 may be bestowed upon it. In large commercial cities, indeed, the latter is usually the obvious interest of mercantile men to advertise in those papers which are the most extensively circulated. Washington, however, is differently situated. Deprived of the advertising patronage incident to a mercantile community, and burdened with peculiar and enormous expenseswhich are not elsewhere incurred, nothing but a very long list of subscribing pa- THE Subscribers have opened a NEW trons can sustain a paper in esefelnesspaper worthy of the metropolis, and worthy sary for a Printing Office. of the support of that great party under Ladies and Misses Leghorn, Tuscan, before attempted on this continent in a dai- suit the times. The "DAILY UNION" will be publish. ed, as heretofore, at $10 per annum, paya-ble in advance. Its character hitherto has been almost exclusively political. We purpose in future to devote a portion of its columns to domestic news of general interest, and to miscellaneous literature, which, without impairing its political influence, columns, the attention of those, both in may render it the more acceptable to an ex-

The "SEMI-WEEKLY UNION" will be published every Monday and Thursday, during the recess of Congress, at 85 per annum. This contains all the matter contained in the "Daily Union," except local advertisements. During the sessions of Congress three numbers, instead of two, will be issued, without any extra charge o subscribers,

ENLARGEMENT OF THE WEEKLY UNION.

The "WEEKLY UNION" is issued eveny Satuaday; and as arrangements are in progress to enlarge it near double its present size, we shall soon be enabled to give nearly every article which may appear in the daily and semi-weekly editions, at the extreme low rate of 82. We propose also to give, in this edition, a complete synoptical summary of the proceedings in both houses of Congress-thus rendering the "Weekly Union" a most valuable channel of information to all classes of our country. But, to remunerate us for this enterprise, an extensive subscription list is absolutely indispensable.

We seize this opportunity to add that some delay has taken place in putting our paper to press, which has preverted its early delivery to our readers, and consequently circumscribed its circulation. We shall make arrangements to remedy this defect, and to obviate this objection. After the present week we trust that no complaint will be made upon this subject.

CONGRESSIONAL REGISTER. In addition to the foregoing, we have resolved to publish, during the sessions of the national legislature, a "Cougre ssional Register," to be issued weekly, and to contain a FULL REPORT of the daily proceedings and debates of both houses. Indeed, the arrangements which we have made with the very best corps of reporters will enable us to give even more, full and extended reports than we have produced during this session, superior as we claim them to be to any preceding ones. The Register will be made up from the daily by an experienced editor, and will constitute a complete and authentic record of the session. An appendix will be added, uniform with the Register and to be sent gratuitously to subscribers, comprising a list of the acts passed during the session, with a when necessary, to previous legislation: This will form the most complete history of the sessions of Congress, and will be furnished at the low price of SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS for the next session.
